

COMMON TREE BARKS OF WEST VIRGINIA

Tree barks are shaggy, flaky, smooth, have ridges or plates. You can tell the difference with your eyes and touch. But be careful! Sometimes trees have poison ivy growing on them! You can identify poison ivy from its three shiny leaves and hairy vine.

